

JOB ANNOUNCEMENT

JOB TITLE: Medical Oncologist

CLOSE DATE: Open Until Filled

Pacific Northwest Oncology Opportunity

Located just south of Seattle, Salish Cancer Center is accepting applications for a BC/BE Oncologist to join its growing medical staff. Work at an Integrative Oncology Clinic that boasts a state-of-the-art Infusion center with gorgeous views of Mount Rainier, and easy access to I-5. Join the physician team to see both hematologic and solid tumor cases in a clinic that is focused on exceptional patient care.

Benefits: Excellent compensation package to include PTO, sick leave, personal days, paid holidays, CME allowance, paid malpractice insurance, and comprehensive health benefits. Relocation reimbursement potential, flexible start date and weekday schedule.

Community: The Puget Sound is an outdoor enthusiast's dream. With mountains and the Pacific Ocean within driving distance of each other, you can surf, hike, camp, sail, and explore outside year-round. Seattle offers the big city experience with world-class restaurants, shopping, and endless cultural events at local art museums, science centers, and concert halls. Join us to serve the Puget Sound while enjoying the stunning Pacific Northwest.

TO APPLY: A Salish employment application is required (resume optional). Applications can be found at www.salishcancercenter.com or the Human Resources Department. Completed applications must be submitted to the Human Resources Department by 5:00 pm on the closing date. Positions that are open until filled may close at any time. We are an Equal Opportunity Employer while practicing Native preference according to law.

BENEFITS: Medical, Vision, Dental, Life and AD&D insurance, 401(k) profit sharing, Vacation, Personal and Sick leave, paid Holidays, CME allowance, Employee Assistance Plan, paid malpractice, and possible relocation assistance.

TO APPLY:

Completed applications can be sent to:
